The International School of Hospitality to Host Free Career Fair

Las Vegas, January 25, 2010 – The Alumni Association of the International School of Hospitality (TISOH) today announced that it will host a hospitality career fair for the Southern Nevada community on Thursday, February 25, 2010 from Noon until 3 pm at TISOH’s campus in Las Vegas, close to McCarran Airport. Human resources personnel from the major hospitality venues from Las Vegas will be present. Admission is free and all are welcome to attend. Expected to attend are MGM Mirage, Harrah’s Entertainment, Station Casinos, Vegas.com, Trump Las Vegas Hotel, CLI Groups, Champagne Creative Group, Hofbrauhaus and more. In addition, TISOH is planning sessions on career counseling and resume preparation.

“The career fair is organized by the TISOH Alumni Association as a way of giving back to our community,” said Destinee Walker, Committee Chair and Director of Private Dining at Koi Restaurant of Planet Hollywood Resort. “We’re very pleased to say that there is a high level of interest from the major hospitality industry players in the city despite what people are saying about the economy.”

TISOH alumni as well as the public are invited to come and meet potential employers for information and on-the-spot interviews. Employers will be interviewing to hire for internships and full or part time positions.

The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) was founded in 2005 by professors from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The mission of the school is to offer practical, short-term hospitality training programs developed for industry by industry. Along with class instruction, most courses include site visits and working internships. The school curriculum includes conference management and event planning, meeting & event catering, event design & production, hospitality leadership and supervision, wedding coordination and design, the art of concierge, food and beverage, hotel operations and hospitality human resources. Students may elect to study on site or enroll in TISOH’s online courses.
