The International School of Hospitality Now Offers Career Exploration Workshops

Las Vegas, April 11, 2011 – The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) today announced the launch of an online series of program workshops that will help participants decide if the hospitality industry is right for them. Called Career Exploration in Hospitality, this one-of-a-kind program is available in the six key industry areas of conference management & event planning, wedding coordination, concierge, hotel operations, hospitality human resources and catering. Each Career Exploration program is one and a half hours in length and consists of a narrated PowerPoint presentation introducing the specific career field and follows with an hour long, one-on-one telephone consultation with an industry professional. To support participants' interests to explore new careers, each program is priced at $89.

Should participants decide to pursue a career in hospitality or retrain themselves for advancement in the industry, The International School of Hospitality offers certificate and diploma programs in all of these key hospitality fields – Conference Management & Event Planning, Wedding Coordination & Design, The Art of Concierge, Event Design & Production, Art of Food & Beverage, Meeting & Event Catering, and Hospitality Leadership & Supervision.

TISOH's summer classroom schedule for these seven certificate and two diploma hospitality courses begins the week of May 16 and continues for three to six months. Diploma programs are vocational and provide comprehensive learning in a specific field with relevant management training. Courses are specially designed to accommodate working schedules. Enrollment is limited. TISOH's campus is conveniently located close to McCarran International Airport at 3614 E. Sunset Road, Suite 110.

In addition, TISOH announced the schedules for three, 5-week FASTtrack certificate programs in Conference Management & Event Planning, Hotel Operations and Wedding Coordination & Design, all beginning July 11, 2011. A separate FASTtrack program in Hospitality Human Resources begins May 16, 2011. FASTtrack programs meet daily and feature the same instructional team of credentialed industry professional instructors.

All TISOH programs are available online with rolling admissions. Online programs at TISOH are self-paced, feature audio/visual PowerPoint presentations with one-to-one instruction. Students can start whenever enrollment procedures are complete.

About TISOH

The 2010/11 school year marks the fifth anniversary of the school. The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) was founded by professors from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas. The mission of the school is to offer practical, short-term hospitality training programs developed for industry by industry. Along with class instruction, most courses include site visits and working externships. TISOH makes it easy for students to pursue their professional education by offering the option of classroom or online learning. Graduates have come from throughout the United States and internationally from Asia, Europe, and the Americas. The school is an Academic Partner of the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute.
